

Recording in/streaming from the Library Policy

To ensure patron confidentiality and protect routine operations, recording patrons or patron service areas is forbidden during normal hours of operation.

However, any person who wishes to record, photograph, stream, or broadcast images from the library, for any purpose, is welcome to contact the Library at 716-731-9933 to help make that happen.

The Library reserves the right at all times to refuse any on-site recording, photography, or streaming/broadcast that could negatively impact safety, patron privacy, employee work conditions, and/or routine library operations.
